“Texas Country Reporter” Announces Annual Festival Date for 2014 19th Annual Texas Country Reporter Festival Set for Saturday, October 25

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 23, 2014...Dallas, TX...The 19th annual Texas Country Reporter Festival has been set for Saturday, October 25. The free, one-day arts, crafts and music festival will be held at the historic Courthouse Square at downtown Waxahachie, Texas.

This unique festival features the artists and craftspeople featured on TCR giving the program's audience an opportunity to meet the people they see and enjoy on the weekly TV program. The festival will begin at 9 a.m.

The festival is hosted by Bob Phillips of “Texas Country Reporter” and the Waxahachie Convention and Visitors Bureau. Upon making the announcement, Phillips said, “We started this festival in a park in Dallas with a few hundred people and never expected it to grow to the 50-60 thousand visitors we now have every year ! The music, the arts and crafts, the food and the people that travel to Waxahachie from all over Texas make this a magical event! I think it truly is among the best festivals in the state!”
